

PITCH UP – TRIAL EDIT

Edit:

Hunters Quay Holiday Village is a five-star, award-winning park set in 185 acres of elevated, landscaped grounds with spectacular views overlooking the Firth of Clyde and Argyllshire hills. Easily reached by road or ferry, this dream location is only 2 miles north of the seaside town of Dunoon, and a mere 1 hour from Glasgow.

Here, you can luxuriate in the comforts of our modern, self-catering caravans and lodges (some with outdoor hot tubs!) whilst enjoying a superb range of all-weather facilities in the village's magnificent leisure complex.

Swim in one of two fabulous, heated indoor pools (complete with Sea Scooters and Water Walkerz) or try your hand at archery, raft-building or Aeroball. Whichever you choose, it's all part of our new and exclusive Go Active breaks for 2012, promising plenty of fun and making Hunters Quay Holiday Village the perfect, family holiday destination.

Local attractions: quad biking, cinema, supermarket*

Original:

This 5* Scottish tourism award winning park is situated in an elevated position with spectacular views overlooking the Argyllshire hills and Firth of Clyde. Hunters Quay Holiday Village is in a dream location only 2 miles north of the seaside town of Dunoon and easily reached by road or ferry, only 1 hour from Glasgow.

Set in 185 acres of landscaped grounds are our modern and comfortable self catering caravans and lodges, some of which include an outdoor hot tub! Offering a superb range of all weather facilities in a magnificent leisure complex, this five star holiday village promises plenty of fun. Swim in one of two fabulous indoor heated pools complete with Sea Scooters and WaterWalkerz, or try your hand at Archery, Raft Building or Aeroball. All part of our new and exclusive Go Active breaks for 2012 which make Hunters Quay the perfect family holiday destination.